During a Greyhound bus trip from Edmonton to Winnipeg on 7/30/2008, while 35 fellow passengers watched in horror, Vince Weiguang Li repeatedly stabbed, and finally beheaded, his seat mate, Tim McLean, without warning or apparent reason. In March 2009 Li was found not guilty by reason of insanity. The attack occurred near Portage La Prairie, but since the bus station there is so depressing, we're redirecting you to Erickson (where Li spent the night before boarding the bus), a town that has memorialized their ancestors, the Vikings. Those fellows could have taught Vince Li a thing or two about cold-blooded murder.

Shakespeare taught us in Romeo and Juliet that the course of true love never does run smooth. Vili Fualaau learned all sorts of fascinating stuff from his teacher, Mary Kay LeTourneau, including things that give new meaning to the idea of "Show and Tell." The pair began a sexual relationship when he was 13 and she 34. Before they finally married in 2005, she had two children by him and had twice served stretches in prison for statutory rape.

Hallie Illingworth was murdered in December 1937 and thrown into Lake Crescent. Her body did not surface until July 1940, at which point it had been transformed into a soap-like substance through the process of adipoceros formation. Identification — staggeringly difficult in the absence of fingerprints, scars, or facial features of any sort — was eventually achieved through dental records. Fibers from a rope used to bind the body were painstakingly linked to her husband. He was convicted of his wife's death and served nine years in Walla Walla. Of the many hundreds of crimes mentioned in this rally, none could possibly have been more difficult to solve than that of the mysterious Lady of the Lake.

Although at least 20 tribes of Indians have treated this spectacular site as a sacred place, few of their legends describe clearly why they have wound up antagonizing the bear in such a fashion as the painting suggests. The Cheyenne story, however, is specific. It refers to the discovery by one brave that his wife, who had been hiding some deep scratches on her back, was actually having an affair with a very large bear. If true, that could easily account for the ill will between the species.

Stop for 5 or more hours. Document this stop as follows:

___ at the start of the rest period, obtain a machine generated receipt with date and time from a location, for example, a gas station, a motel, a store, etc.

___ at the end of the rest period, obtain a machine generated receipt with date and time from the same or nearby location in the same town

Our preference is that you also include your motel receipt with this bonus if you motel it, however, it is not required.

WARNING: We are giving you wide latitude on this bonus with few restrictions so that you may have the flexibility to use it as needed. However, we want to stress that if you are caught bending the rules in the slightest, you will be expelled from the rally. This bonus DOES NOT mean 'get a receipt and go collect bonuses.' It means stop and rest.
